DALLAS R. SEAGRAVES and INDEPENDENT ADVISORY

RESPONDENTS

AGREED ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On February 28, 2008, the Department (formerly "Office") of Financial Institutions entered an administrative order directing the Respondents, Dallas R. Seagraves and Independent Advisory Services Incorporated, to show cause why its license in Kentucky as an investment adviser should not be revoked for failure to satisfy the solvency requirements of the Kentucky Securities Act (KRS Chapter 292) and the administrative regulations promulgated thereunder. After entry of the administrative order, Respondents formally requested an administrative hearing and this matter was assigned for hearing pursuant to KRS Chapter 13B. However, the Department of Financial Institutions has recently been advised by Mr. Seagraves' current broker-dealer, H. Beck, Inc., that Mr. Seagraves has agreed to terminate his state registered investment adviser license, effective July 1, 2008, and to register as an investment adviser representative of H. Beck's RIA. On July 1, 2008, Mr. Seagraves agrees to file a Form

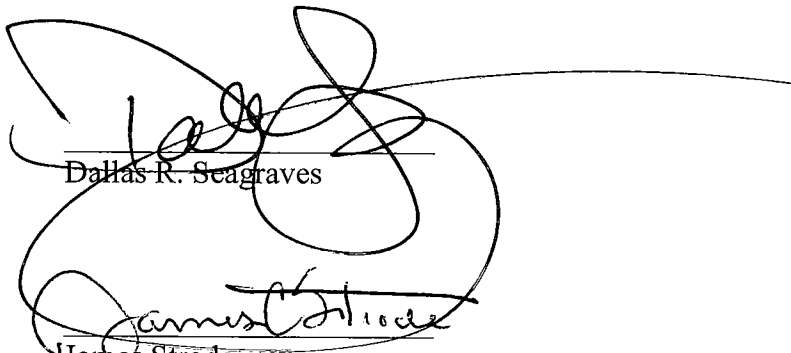

ADV-W with this office officially withdrawing his investment adviser license in Kentucky. Accordingly, the pending administrative action has become moot as a result of these recent developments, and by agreement of the parties, this matter should be dismissed. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the above action is dismissed with prejudice by agreement of the parties. This is a final order.

Entered this 20th day of June, 2008.
